

English Exam Guidelines

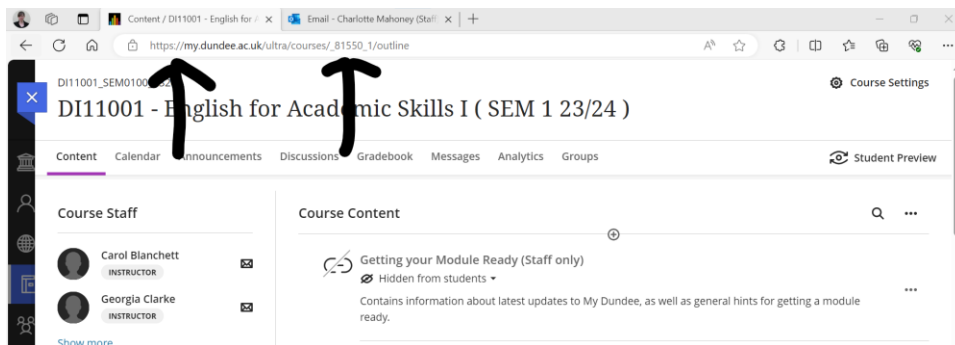

MyDundee

The Listening, Reading and Writing exams will be online on MyDundee.

You should ONLY have the MyDundee tab open on your computer:

If an invigilator sees another tab open on your computer, you will need to leave the exam room and will receive zero for the exam.

Translation Software / auto-translate

No translation software or any auto-translation software should be used. Your computer language should be set to English. If the invigilator sees Chinese on your computer, you will need to leave the exam room and will receive zero for the exam. You may also be investigated for Academic Misconduct.

Listening

You will need headphones for the exam. Make sure these work / are fully charged. Invigilators will bring paper for students to use for notes in the Listening exams.

Reading

The Reading text will be on paper. The questions will be on MyDundee.

Equipment

It is the students' responsibility to make sure computers and headphones are working and charged. If a student's equipment does not work for any reason, no new equipment will be provided.

Students cannot bring paper into the exam room. Students can bring pens/pencils to use in the Listening and Reading.
